CUSTOM FIREPLACE SURROUNDS

indoor & outdoor fireplaces

MyriadStone Custom Fireplaces let you create a unique place for family and friends to gather, bringing warmth and beauty to any space. Fireplaces are one of the most cultivating and fundamental pieces in a home. Whether it is a residential, commercial, multifamily, inside or outside fireplace, let MyriadStone be your choice material.

MyriadStone is a lightweight, durable lime-stone based product that looks like cut or cast stone. Our knowledgeable artisans work tirelessly to create unique designs to meet your specifications. Our industry-leading manufacturing process set us above the rest.

colors & textures

We offer MyriadStone in 13 standard colors and 2 textures. You will be able to choose from our Tuscan Texture that brings an old-world charm to your modern living room or our versatile, elegant natural Roman Texture that looks beautiful in diverse design settings. The combination of these colors and textures offer many design possibilities.

Start by selecting a configuration from a wide array of options and other unique elements to customize to your taste and style. MyriadStone also offers you the ability to select custom colors and many more custom additions (see it below) to satisfy any style.
