CUSTOM RANGE HOODS

Are you thinking about designing a new kitchen or redesigning your current one? The kitchen is the heart of a home, a place where your family gathers everyday. So when designing your dream kitchen you want it to represent your style. Do not settle for generic or modular designs; let a MyriadStone Custom Range Hood become the focal point of your kitchen.

One-of-a-kind

With MyriadStone you are able to design your own one-of-a-kind range hood. MyriadStone is a lightweight, durable lime-stone based product that looks like cut or cast stone. Our knowledgeable craftsmen work tirelessly to create unique designs that meet your specifications. Our state-of-the-art frame design and industry-leading manufacturing process set us above the rest.

Colors & Textures

We offer MyriadStone in 13 standard colors and 2 textures. You will be able to choose from our Tuscan Texture that brings a beautiful, old-world charm to your modern kitchen or our versatile, elegant natural Roman Texture that looks beautiful in diverse design settings. The combination of these colors and textures offer many design possibilities. MyriadStone also offers you the ability to select custom colors and many more custom additions (see list below) to satisfy any style.

MyriadStone has virtually limitless custom possibilities.
